University of Oregon President Dave Frohnmayer was awarded a LCMS Honorary Membership for his significant expansion of the College of Arts and Sciences.

President Frohnmayer's merits for earning the Honorary Membership include being a co-founder of the Fanconi Anemia Research Fund, a founding Director of the National Marrow Donor Program, and significant contributions he has made and inspired among this community toward the advancement of science.

Next LCMS Meeting: Monday, May 11th

'Brain Chemistry for Lovers' - Music, Love and Neuroscience. A natural union
